

Mickley Village Primary School

Religious Education –Progression Map

Foundation 1

Understanding the World – age 3-4
To talk about what they see, using a wide vocabulary. Begin to understand the need to respect and care for the natural environment and all living things To continue developing positive attitudes about the differences between people. (Development Matters links)
Christianity	Islam	Hinduism	Non-religious
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know that some people believe in God. To know that Jesus was a man who lived a long time ago. To know simple facts from the Nativity story. To know some ways Christians celebrate Christmas. To know that Jesus died at Easter time. To know some ways Christians celebrate Easter. To know that Noah built an Ark. To know why Noah built an Ark. To know why people celebrate St. Valentines Day. To know the story about St. George and the dragon. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know that some people stop eating to show their love to God. To know some ways Ramadan and Eid-ul-Fitr are celebrated by Muslims. To know that the Muslim God is called Allah. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know that Hindus celebrate Diwali. To know that candles are used at Diwali to show goodness winning over evil. To know the story about Rama and Sita. To know that Hindus celebrate Holi – the festival of colours. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know that all people are unique / special. To know that all people deserve to be treated fairly and kindly. To know that all people look different. To know how to be kind to all living creatures.

Foundation 2

Christianity	Islam	Hinduism	Judaism	Sikhism
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know that Christians believe everyone is special to God. To know that the Bible is a special book to Christians. To know that God cared about everyone, including children. To know that a cross is a symbol that Christians wear to remind them of their beliefs. To know that Christians welcome new babies by having a special ceremony called a baptism. To know some of the items used in a baptism. To know that Jesus has a very special birthday. To know the events of the Nativity story and some of the people in the story. To know that Christmas is a celebration of Jesus' birth. To know what an advent candle is and how it is used. To know that songs are sang to celebrate Christmas. To know that Christians believe Jesus was a gift to the world. To know that Christians believe the world was created by God. To know the story of creation. To know that God put man on earth to look after all of the animals and living things. To know that Jesus had some special friends. To know that Jesus performed miracles. To know that a church is a special place for Christians. To know the names of some parts of a church. To know that the Christian Bible tells many important stories. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know that Islam has a religious symbol called Crescent and star. To know that some special words are whispered into a Muslim baby's ear to welcome them to the Islamic faith. To know that cutting hair is a way of getting rid of bad luck. To know that Muslim babies are given names with special meanings. To know that the prophet Muhammed is special to Muslims. To know that Muslims believe that Allah created the world. To know that Muslims care for animals and living things. To know that a Mosque is a special place for Muslims. To know the names of some parts of a Mosque. To know the Islamic greeting "peace be upon you" To know that Muslim's have a call to pray. To know that Muhammed was God's messenger. To know that Muslim's have a holy book called the Qur'an. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know that Hindus have a religious symbol called Aum. To know that Hindus celebrate siblings by carrying a rakhi. To know that Hindus hold a festival to celebrate siblings called Raksha Bandhan. To know the story of Rama and Sita. To know some of the celebrations that take place during Diwali, e.g. diva lamps, rangoli patterns etc. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know that sukkot is a special celebration for Jews. To know that Sukkot is a celebration to give thanks for harvest and food. To know that Sukkot is also a celebration of the time Jewish people spent in huts in the desert. To know what a sukkah looks like. To know that Sukkot lasts for 8 days. To know that Jews believe the world was created by God. To know that Jews have a holy book called a Torah. To know that Christians believe the world was created by God. To know the story of creation. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know that Guru Nanak is a special person to Sikhs. To know that Guru means special teacher.

Year 1

Christianity	Islam	Judaism
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know that people have different ideas about God. To know that God does lots of different things. To know that Christians see God as the father, and creator but also as the son and the holy spirit. To know what a Bible looks like. To know that the Bible is split into two sections (old and new testament) To know why Jesus is important to Christians. To know that Christians believe Jesus is the son of God. To know that Christians believe God and Jesus did miracles. To know that Christians have a special prayer called “The Lord’s Prayer”. To know why Christian’s pray. To know the events that take place during Holy Week. To know that the events at Easter turn sadness into happiness. To know which people are involved in the Easter Story. To know that Christians may attend church during Holy week. To know that water symbolizes “clean” and “fresh start” at a Christian baptism. To know that the church is the centre of the Christian community. To know that church buildings may look different. To know the names of features of a church - Altar, cross or crucifix, Lord’s Table, bread, wine, bible, font, lectern, candles. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know that the Muslim word for God is Allah. To know that Muslims never draw Allah because he is too great to draw. To know that Muslims pray five times a day. To know that the Prophet Muhammed is a great leader. To know that Muhammed taught Muslims how to follow God. To know that Islamic stories are very important to Muslims. To know that the Muslim symbol of a moon represents lighting the path of faith. To know that there is a big Muslim community in England. To know many features of a Mosque. To know what the word sacred means. To know that Muslims can pray anywhere using a prayer mat. To know who the Imam is and what they do. To know why Muslims take off their shoes to enter the Mosque. To know that the Qur’an is the real word of God. To know what the Shahadah means to Muslims. To know that Muslims use prayer beads to remember the 99 names of Allah. To know that Muslims celebrate Ramadan and Eid-ul-Fitr. To know why Muslims fast during Ramadan. To know the important Allahu Akbar – God is great. To know that Muslims shave a new baby’s hair and weigh it, giving the weight in gold to the poor. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know the story of Passover. To know that Jews have a special seder plate at Passover. To know that Jewish weddings take place under a chuppah – canopy. To know that a synagogue is a special place to Jews. To know the names of some features of a synagogue.

Year 2

Christianity	Islam	Judaism
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know key events that take place during Holy week - Procession into Jerusalem (Palm Sunday), turning over the tables in the Temple, washing his friends' feet and the Last Supper, being betrayed by Judas, arrested and denied by Peter, crucifixion, the empty tomb and Easter Sunday morning. To know that Easter week is special to Christians as it is a time to turn sorrow into joy. To know how music can help to celebrate Easter. To know which objects are special to Christians at Easter and know what they symbolise - a palm leaf, a piece of bread and a glass of red wine, bowl of water and a small towel, a prickly branch woven into a circle, a hot crossed bun, an empty cross. To know when a Christian might attend church at Easter - Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Sunday. To know what happens at an Easter church service. To know what matters most to Christians at Easter. To know that Christians believe God is everywhere. To know that Christians believe God does lots of different things. To know that Christians see God as the father, and creator but also as the son and the holy spirit. To know the key features of a bible and what it looks like. To know that the bible is a collection of writings by many different authors. To know that the Bible is split into two sections (old and new testament) To know that the bible has many stories teaching Christians how to live. To know that Christians believe God looks after them like a loving Father. To know that Jesus told stories with secret meanings, to teach people a lesson, called parables. To know the story of the Good Samaritan. To know that Jesus taught us to Love your neighbor as yourself. To know that there are lots of miracle stories in the bible. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know that Muslims take part in Ramadan and Id-ul-Fitr To know that Ramadan is a fast that takes place during day light hours. To know that Muslims spend longer reading from the Qur'an and thinking about God during Ramadan than normally. To know that Zakat means giving to charity and that Muslims do this during Ramadan. To know the Muslim word for God is Allah. To know that Muslims never draw Allah because he is too great to draw. To know that the shahadah – God is most great, there is no God but Allah – is extremely important to Muslims. To know that Muslims pray five times a day. To know that Allah has many different names. To know what makes a good leader. To know a leader sets an inspiring or good example. To know that the Prophet Muhammed is a great leader with over 1.5 billion followers. To know that Muhammed taught Muslims how to follow God. To know that Islamic stories are very important to Muslims. To know that Muhammed forbade any cruelty to animals or living things. To know that Muhammed believed in fairness and justice for all. To know that the Muslim symbol of a moon represents lighting the path of faith. To know that Muhammed inspires Muslims to behave. To know that Muslim people can be different races and skin colours. To know that there is a big Muslim community in England. To know many features of a Mosque and know their importance - prayer mat, water and a Qur'an stand for Muslim prayer To know what the word sacred means. To know that wherever a Muslim chooses to pray becomes their Mosque. To know there are nearly 2000 Mosques in Britain. To know that the hall inside the Mosque is the most important part. To know that all Muslims pray in the same direction. To know that women pray separately from men. To know who the Imam is and what they do. To know how patterns inside the Mosque represent that God is perfect. To know that the Qur'an is the real word of God. To know why the Qur'an is on a stand and is never touched by the naked hand. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know that the Star of David is a symbol of Judaism. To know the names of some special Jewish items - mezuzah, candlesticks, challah bread, table set up for Shabbat, seder plate, matzah cover, Star of David on a chain, prayer books, chanukiah. To know what a mezuzah is. To know why a mezuzah is special to Jews. To know there is a Jewish prayer called a Shema. To know that Jews believe in "one God" To know why the Mezuzah is placed on a door. To know that Shabbat starts on a Friday evening and finishes on Saturday evening. To know that Shabbat is the Jewish day of rest. To know the creation story and to know what happened on the 7th day. To know how Jewish people prepare for Shabbat – tidying, laying the table etc. To know that candles are lit to welcome Shabbat. To know how Jewish people might rest at Shabbat. To know the story of Chanukah. To know the Jewish game dreidel is played at Chanukah. To know the events of Passover and know the alternative name Pesach. To know the key aspects of a seder meal. To know what the items on a seder plate represent. To know what Matzot is and why Jews eat it at Passover. To know that a yad is used to read from the Torah. To know that Tzedekah is when Jewish give to charity.

<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To know some ways in which Jesus performed miracles.• To know that Christians have a special prayer called “The Lord’s Prayer” and it came from the bible.• To know what some of the key words mean in the Lord’s prayer.• To know that the Bible is written in lots of different languages.• To know about some people who have shown exceptional care to others, e.g. Mother Teresa.• To know the Golden rule - ‘Treat other people as you would like them to treat you.’	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To know that the Qur’an is written in Arabic in calligraphy.• To know that Muslims use prayer beads to remember the 99 names of Allah• To know some of the names given to Allah – creator, judge, merciful, forgiver etc.• To know the importance of fasting to Muslims during Ramadan.• To know how Muslims celebrate Ramadan and Eid-ul-Fitr.• To know the important Allahu Akbar – God is great.• To know that Muslims shave a new baby’s hair and weigh it, giving the weight in gold to the poor.
--	--	--

Year 3

Christianity	Islam	Hinduism	Judaism	Humanism / non religious
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know what happens inside a church at different times. To know how music can play an important role in worship. To know that hymns are sung in church as part of worship. To know that bread and wine symbolize the last supper to Christians. To know what is symbolised by the bread and wine. To know what happens during Holy communion. To know how the church can play an important role in the local community. To know how bible teachings and Christianity has inspired different people, e.g. Rosa Parkes. To know that the Bible teaches the Christians about God, safety, love, life, family. To know that the bible has... 2 Testaments, 66 books, 1189 chapters and over 31 000 verses. To know that Genesis is the story of creation. To know the story of Adam and Eve. To know what temptation means and how Adam was tempted in the Garden of Eden. To know how Christians might stop themselves from temptation. To know how Christians use the bible - at home / at church / at a wedding / at a funeral / when people are worried / when they are asking questions / when a baby is born / in the family / to decide what is right / to find out about history. To know about the Gideons charity and how they help people. To know that during Holy week Christians remember what happened to Jesus. To know the four main Easter services in church - Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Sunday. To know the story of the last supper. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know that Islam means submission. To know the sacrifice Muslims make during Ramadan. To know why people visit the mosque, get new clothes, share food, spend time with friends and family and give money to charity at Eid-ul-Fitr. To know that Allah has 99 names and are recited using the subha. To know that Muslims believe Allah is found in nature. To know that the Qur'an is handled and looked after in special ways. To know that Muslims face Makkah when praying. To know that the first Surah is part of the daily prayers. To know how wudu prepares Muslims for prayer. To know that Muslims pray five times a day, using different body movements. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know that Hindu worship is called puja. To know what items are needed for a puja tray - small bell, flowers, a pot of water, a murti or image of a Hindu deity, some sweets or sugar and a spoon. To know what the items on a puja tray represent. To know that music plays an important part in Hindu worship - 'bhajans' To know that Hindu Aims and Duties is a metaphor of a life journey. To know the word Dharma means duty. To know that Hindus believe in reincarnation. To know that the Hindus believe in karma meaning "what goes around, comes around" To know that Mahatma Gandhi devoted his whole life to fighting injustice. To know Mahatma Gandhi's main achievements. To know how Indian culture has influenced life in Britain, e.g. food. To know the Hindu story of Rama and Sita. To know how Rama and Sita dealt with temptation. To know that the goddess Lakshmi represents good fortune and prosperity. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know why Jews celebrate Passover. To know what the seder plate represents and how it is used in the celebration. To know how Jewish people felt during the exile. To know the story of Moses and the Burning Bush. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know that there are many people who do not believe in God. To know that Humanists believe in humanity and not in any gods. To know there are similarities between Humanist values and religious values.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To know that the last supper is portrayed in many pieces of art. • To know that Pilates crucified Jesus. • To know the difference between Good Friday and Easter Sunday. • To know the four ideas of God - is God love? Is God 'our Father'? Is God light? Is God the Creator? • To know that Christians think of God as Trinity – Father, Son and Holy Spirit. • To know why Christians pray. • To know what praying involves and what it means to Christians. • To know some items that help Christians to pray - rosary, candles, prayer mat, prayer books, incense. • To know that believers talk to God through prayer. • To know when the Lord's prayer was first used. 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To know that Hindus worship at the Mandir. • To know how Diwali is celebrated in Britain today. • To know what a Durga murti is and how it is used in worship. • To know the Hindu belief of Brahman. • To know what a shrine is and that most Hindus will have one in their home. • To know how a puja tray is used in worship. • To know which senses are used in puja.
--	--	---	--	--

Year 4

Christianity	Islam	Hinduism	Judaism	Humanism / non religious
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know some items that might be found in a Christian home. To know the basic layout of the inside of a church building. To know what happens inside a church at different times. To know how music can play an important role in worship. To know that hymns are sung in church as part of worship. To know that bread and wine symbolize the last supper to Christians. To know what is symbolised by the bread and wine. To know what happens during Holy communion. To know why Holy Communion is important to Christians and takes place in over 200 countries across the world. To know that Anglicans and Catholics carry out Holy communion differently. To know how the church might support people in the community. To know how bible teachings and Christianity has inspired different people, e.g. Rosa Parkes. To know that the Civil Rights Movement outlines equal rights. To know that racism has existed through history and still happens today. To know that Holy week helps Christians to remember what happened to Jesus. To know the four main services Christians may attend during Holy week – Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Sunday. To know that Jesus became a servant by washing his disciples feet. To know that the last supper is portrayed in many pieces of art. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know what sacrifices Muslims make during Ramadan. To know what Muslims do during Eid-ul-Fitr. To know how Eid-UL-Fitr and Easter have similarities linked to sacrifice. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know what is important to British Hindu children today. To know Hindus worship deities. To know that Hindu worship is called puja. To know what items are needed for a puja tray - small bell, flowers, a pot of water, a murti or image of a Hindu deity, some sweets or sugar and a spoon and how these are used in worship. To know that a candle flame dispels the darkness during worship. To know that music plays an important part in Hindu worship - 'bhajans' To know that music can change the way they feel. To know that aarti is a ritual of worship. To know different important steps through life, e.g. birth, school, marriage, having a child etc. To know the word Dharma means duty. To know that Hindus believe that when you die you are reborn – reincarnation. To know that Hindus believe you can be reincarnated as an animal or plant or any type of human. To know that if you are reincarnated as a lower form this is seen as punishment for living a bad life. To know that Hindus goal is to not be reborn anymore and go to live with God – moksha. To know that Hindus believe they can earn good or bad karma depending on their actions in life. To know that India was once controlled by Britain for around 200 years. To know that a Hindu duty is to work for justice. To know that Mahatma Gandhi devoted his whole life to fighting injustice. To know Mahatma Gandhi's main achievements. To know the difference between violent and peaceful protest. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know the importance of the story of Passover to Jews. To know what individual items on the seder plate represent. To know why Jews don't eat foods with yeast in during Passover. To know that the Torah outlines the way in which Jews live. To know that Jews believe the ten commandments were given by God. To know why Jews will always try to follow and keep to the ten commandments. To know that Bar and Bat Mitzvah mark children becoming adults in Judaism. To know how Bar and Bat Mitzvah's are celebrated. To know the reasons why Jews choose to get married. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know that humanists do not believe in God. To know that most humanists will listen to their own conscience to work out what is right and wrong. To know what is important to humanists. To know that a lot of people get married without believing in God.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To know that Pilates condemned Jesus to death and the reasons he did this. • To know the difference between Good Friday and Easter Sunday. • To know that the Gospels are 4 books about Jesus's life. • To know that the Gospels are named after the person who wrote them – Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. • To know that the word Gospel means good news. • To know that there is no written description of Jesus and that nobody knows what he really looked like. • To know that Jesus performed miracles. • To understand that a parable teaches us a lesson. • To know how Jesus used metaphors to describe himself to groups of people, e.g. I am the light. • To know that most Christians don't believe they are perfect and will say sorry to God. • To know how the beatitudes might help a Christian to live a good life. • To know the story of Adam and Eve and how temptation plays a big part in life. • To know that baptism is an initiation ceremony to the Christian world. • To know why water is used during baptism and what it symbolizes. • To know the reasons why Christians choose to get married. 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To know about charities working to support the Indian people today. • To know where Hindu communities predominantly live today. • To know how a Hindu wedding differs to a traditional British wedding. • To know that the Hindu story of Rama and Sita is about good overcoming evil. • To know that the goddess Lakshmi represents good fortune and prosperity. • To know that rangoli patterns are drawn on doorsteps to welcome Lakshmi. • To know how Diwali is celebrated in Britain today. • To know that Hindus believe that life is a journey from one body to another. • To know that reincarnation is seen as a joyful journey until the person reaches spiritual freedom (Moksha). • To know that Hindu's believe there are four life stages. • To know about the sacred thread ceremony for boys. • To know that a sacred thread must be worn for life. • To know that there are seven steps in a Hindu wedding ceremony.
--	--	--	--	--

Year 5

Christianity	Islam	Hinduism	Judaism	Humanism / non-religious
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know what Christians think God is like. To know that different groups of Christians interpret the creation story differently. To know that Christians value love, forgiveness, peace between people and God, honesty, prayer, worship and fellowship. To know that Christians believe humans are made in the image of God. To know about Christian values relating to peace. To know that Jesus had a mission statement and what it means to Christians. To know Christian beliefs about love. To know that a parable is a story which teaches us a lesson. To know that crucifixion was used by the Romans as a punishment. To know that Jesus forgave the people who crucified him. To know that forgiveness is not always an easy thing to do. To know who Mother Teresa was and some of the work she did in God's name. To know the names of some of the Christian charities and some of the work they do. To know some reasons why Christians might give to charity. To know that Christians believe a cross symbolises the power of love. To know that there are different types of Christian churches, e.g. Anglican, Baptist. To know why the natural world is important to Christians and makes them feel close to God. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know that the five pillars are essential to the life of a Muslim. To know that Muslims believe in the five pillars and follow them. To know that the Shahada is one of the most important beliefs in Islam. To know that the words of the shahada are the first words a Muslim baby hears. To know that Muslims pray by making different movements. To know that Muslims go to Mosque to pray To know that Muslims give to charity. To know that Muslims fast. To know that Eid-ul-fitr is a celebration at the end of fasting. To know what a pilgrimage is. To know that Muslims follow what is written in the Quran. To know some simple features of a Mosque building e.g. minaret and dome. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know the difference between a Mandir and a home shrine. To know the reasons why Hindus choose to worship at the Mandir. To know that Hindus go on pilgrimage every five years. To know the importance of the River Ganges within Hinduism. To know that a challenging experience can make Hindus feel closer to God. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know that a synagogue and schul are names used for the Jewish place of worship. To know that there are different branches of Judaism e.g. Orthodox and Reform. To know some ways that Orthodox and Reform branches of Judaism differ from each other. To know that the Torah is written by hand in Judaism. To know items which you would find in a Jewish home, e.g. mezuzah, kiddush cup, prayer book, Hebrew letters, different sections within a kitchen etc. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know why some people might not believe in God. To know that atheist is a name for someone who doesn't believe God exists. To know that atheists do not believe that the world was created by God. To know about the "big bang" theory and to understand the science concept of the creation of planet earth. To know of the work that the British Humanist Association does. To know some of the values which humanists live by. To know the idea of freedom of action. To know about Humanist values relating to peace.

Year 6

Christianity	Islam	Hinduism	Humanism / non-religious
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know that Christians are committed to believing in God's grace. To know that "Grace" means forgiveness. To know that Christians believe God forgives everyone for bad deeds. To know some ways that Jesus showed grace to others, e.g. crucifixion. To know that Jesus washed the feet of his disciples and what this signifies to Christians. To know how art work can be used to remember Jesus' teachings. To know that lots of art work was inspired by bible stories. To know what Eucharist is and what the ritual is like. To know about some famous Christian people e.g. Dr Noel Chavasse and how Christianity played an important part in their life. To know the difference between a church and a cathedral. To know that architecture within cathedrals is an expression of grandeur of God. To know about Christian Aid and the work they do across the world. To know that Christians believe that God judges people on how they have lived their life. To know that Christians believe if people have lived a good life that will go to heaven when they die. To know that a funeral is held to mark a person's death. To know how a funeral may help a person to deal with death. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know that the five pillars are essential to the life of a Muslim. To know that Muslims believe in the five pillars and follow them To know the names of the five pillars and know what they mean. To know how the five pillars can affect a Muslim's daily life. To know what the shahada teaches us about Muhammed. To know that the movements made during Islamic prayer are called rak'ah To know that Muslims go to Mosque to pray but may pray in other places, such as in the home. To know why prayer is so important to Muslims. To know that Muslims give to charity and that this is called Zakah. To know about some of the Muslim charities in today's world e.g. Islamic Relief. To know that Muslims fast and this time is called Ramadan. To know how Eid-ul-fitr is celebrated at home and at the mosque. To know that Muslims try to visit Mecca during their life time and that this is called Hajj. To know that Muslims follow different sources for advice on how to live e.g. qur'an and Hadiths. To know that the hall is the most important part of a Mosque as this is where people pray. To know that women have a separate prayer hall and the reasons for this. To know that Muslims are committed to being part of Ummah – the worldwide Muslim family. To know that Muhammed was a messenger from God. To know why Muslims do not draw or represent Allah or Muhammed in any way or form. To know that Allah spoke directly to Muhammed and revealed the qur'an to him. To know that there are different branches of Islam, e.g. Sunni and Shi'ah. To know how Muslim communities follow the prophet today. To know that Muslims give to charity (zakat) To know that Zakat occurs to give thanks to Allah. To know that Muslim charities help people in need. To know not all Muslims can complete Hajj – but can have unity in aspiring to go. To know that the Kaaba in Makkah is the centre of the world for Muslims. To know that geometric and natural patterns are used to create beauty in Islamic places rather than pictures. To know that poetry is used in Islam as another way of worship. To know similarities about Muslim charities. To know that Muslims believe that God judges people on how they have lived their life. To know that Muslims believe that when a person dies the soul waits in barzakh to be judged by Allah. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know that Hindus are committed Ahimsa, harmlessness and try to live without killing anything. To know who Gandhi was and how he practiced harmlessness throughout his life. To know that Sewa means doing a selfless act to help other people. To know about the charity Sewa UK and the work that it does. To know that Hindus main aim in life is to become one with God – Moksha. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To know that funerals are held for non-believers to celebrate what was achieved in the person's life.